Temburong

at a glance

Welcome to Temburong!

Referred to as the Green Jewel of Brunei, Temburong is a vast emerald landscape full of wonderfully exotic flora and fauna. Visitors can come here to escape from the hustle and bustle of city life and to refresh in the beauty of nature.

Nature and hiking lovers will love the recreational parks scattered across the district, ranging from relaxing trails to more strenuous but well-worth climbs at the Bukit Patoi Forest Recreation Park and the Batang Duri Recreational Park.

If hiking is not exciting enough for you, get your heart pumping at Freme Rainforest Lodge & Adventure Park, with their exhilarating selection of water and adventure activities.

For a dab of local culture and cuisine, visit the Rumah Panjyang Sibut, MPK Sembuh, MPK Batu Apoi and MPK Belais dan Buda-Buda.

Want to spend the night underneath the stars? Book a night or two at Sumbiling Eco Village or The Abode Resort & Spa.

Get you close and personal with nature! Contact our travel agents to find out which experience would suit you best.

Kampung Ambiance

Kampung is Malay for village, and you'll notice how Temburong's atmosphere is more laidback compared to the rest of Brunei. Experience the Kampung way of life at Rumah Panjang Sibut, MPK Batu Apoi, MPK Belais dan Buda-Buda and Sumbiling Eco Village.

Must-Try Food

Besides being popular for its lush and pristine natural rainforests, Temburong is also renowned for its local cuisine and snacks, such as:

Udang Galah (Giant Freshwater Prawn)
This is the most sought-after dish by Bruneians, and it is mostly available from this district.

Wajid Temburong
Wrapped with Nyirik leaves, Wajid is steamed rice slowly cooked in sugar and coconut cream.

Cendol Temburong
Cendol is green in colour and made of rice grains mixed with water. It tastes sweet and is best enjoyed ice cold.

Bamboo Chicken
A traditional Iban dish known locally as "Manuk Pansuh", the chicken is seasoned and steamed inside bamboo stalks over a charcoal fire.

Ambulong (Sago)
Commonly found in the form of round "pearls", sago is a starch extracted from tropical palm stems and used in dishes such as sweet sago pudding and Ambuyat.

Telur Masin (Salted Duck Egg)
Telur Masin soaked in brine or packed in damp, salted charcoal. Its distinctive salty taste makes it a very popular dish among the locals and can be eaten on its own or with main dishes.
